In G.O. No. 66 Mis., Rev., dated 15th January 1927 communicated with B.P. No. 216 Mis. T. R.&S.S. dated 25th January 1927, Government sanctioned the retention of the Assistant Karnam in the Coondapoor village for one year from ~~1st April~~ 1st April 1927. The file of the Court continues to be heavy; 907 civil suits and 448 execution petitions were filed in 1927. The Revenue Divisional Officer, Coondapoor reports, on inspections, of the records and Registers of the Court, that the scriptory work of this court is heavy enough to justify the retention of the Assistant Karnam for another year from 1st April 1928. I agree with him and recommend that Government be moved to accord the necessary sanction.

2. I give below a comparative statement of Revenue work in Coondapoor and in Yedthare.

	Coondapoor.	Yedthare.
1. Azmaish - Revenue Fields	303	320
2. Check of enjoyment	901	293
3. Number of subdivisions giving check measurements.	25	10
4. Number of irrigation sources	..	..
5. Number of survey stones for yearly check	2187	2906
6. Beriz	6225	6449

The revenue work in Yedathare is as heavy as that in Coondapoor but the number of suits field in the Panchayat Court at Yedthar in 1927 was only 274.

3. I regret the delay in applying for sanction. The application was first received in my office on 3rd March 1928 and had to be returned for further information. The reply was received only on the 19th instant. I am instructing the Revenue Divisional Officer to punish those responsible for the delay and in future to apply for sanction in time to enable me to obtain the orders of Government before the period for which the post has been sanctioned expires.

The Govt are satisfied that the amount of clerical work to be done in the Panchayat Court in the Coondapur village continues to be Sonta Karana Dt of such that the ordinary staff of village officers in the village should be strengthened temporarily. They accordingly sanction the retention for a further period of one year from 1-4-28, of the assistant Karnam employed in that village
